Not too surprising that Trump led Cheater Joe 682,664 ballots in Texas. What's surprising is that Trump led Cheater Joe even more in Pennsylvania on Election Night 682,664 ballots (2,552,674 vs Cheater Joe's 1,870,010 <https://i.maga.host/cnxajY7.png>) before the Dem frausters stopped counting and followed with the notorious fake ballot dump for Cheater Joe across all swing states.

I cant say I blame you. I really wanted to go and was debating going. But honestly, Im soooo fucking tired of the talking. I mean, I know Trump has to do this to exhaust all his options so he doesn't appear hot headed etc but the reality is you're not going to just convince these people to tell the truth and do whats right. So, Im just waiting for this to go hot, I honestly don't see how we avoid it at this point. Trump under no circumstances should not resign. If he makes a call to arms I will be there.

= militantnationalist6 -2 points 6 days ago +3 / -5

Yeah, I totally get it, Im a 20 hour drive and plane tickets aren't reasonable at this point. I will be ready if extra support is needed in DC and start to head that way if it looks like there will be real change and consequences. It's possible many of us may find ourselves back in DC again before or at the inauguration date with much different circumstances. Trump knows he has the world's largest army if he wants it based upon his supporters, but it remains to be seen if he's going to or will need to call us for help.

Not really possible at this point given drive time and plane prices. But aside from that I think he's going to call for actual armed support Wednesday at all.

The plus side is when the SHTF the enemies can't say we haven't tried or haven't exhausted all non-violent options. They are basically asking for Civil War at this point.

Yep, I get it which is why I understand why he has to do this. But me personally Im tired of the talking and Ive been preparing for months to make sure I have the supplies I need for any unrest in this country.

I am with you. At some point, Trump must realize that all talk and no action will demoralize MAGA warriors, and by action, I mean simply enforcing the law and locking up the traitors at the very least.

Perhaps, but as others have pointed out, with the massive fraud that took place if this is allowed to stand there is never again a free and fair election again in this country. So you can run all the great candidates you want but they'll never get elected. And at some point they'll just outlaw parties like they do in Europe.
